The Daily Courant.

Tueſday, December 16. 1707.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated Decemb. 13.

Naples, November, 15.

THE 11th Inſtant Count Thaun gave a Splendid Entertainment in the Convent of the Carthuſians to the Duke de Linatola and other Neapolitan Lords; and the 13th the Preſident Giordani treated Count Thaun and ſeveral Noblemen, at his Seat a little out of this City, where were preſent the Dutcheſſes of Limatola and Auranza, Donna Anna Pinelli, and the Counteſs Caraffa. By Order of our Viceroy, an old Building without the Gate del Carmine, which was the Stables of the antient Kings of Naples, is fitting up for Part of the Horſe that are returning from the Abruzzo. The overflowing of Rivers in Calabria has done great Damage in that Province, and given Occaſion to the Inhabitants to ſollicit this Court to be freed from Quartering 3 Regiments of Imperialiſts that were ſent thither, and deſign'd to be employ'd in the Expedition againſt Sicily: Thoſe 3 Regiments being countermanded, are coming back to Conza, Cirenza, and Mattera. Robberies are frequently committed here in the Night: Three German Soldiers who were taken breaking open a Shop, were try'd by a Council of War; Yeſterday 2 of them were Shot, and the third was pardon'd. The ſhatter'd Works of Gaeta are repair'd; and it has been reſolv'd to add new Fortifications to ſome of the Maritime Places of this Kingdom. Father Amoriti a Jeſuite is return'd hither from Aſcoli, whether he was ſent by the Princeſs of Tarſia, to endeavour to perſwade the Duke of Atri to acknowledge the preſent Government: The Duke told him he was very much oblig'd to the Princeſs and thank'd her for the Concern ſhe expreſs'd for him; but having maturely conſider'd what would beſt become him to do, he had determin'd to keep firm to the Party he is already engag'd in.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Decemb. 20.

Naples, Nov. 22. By Order of Count Thaun, a great Quantity of Corn and Oyl is bringing hither by Land-Carriage from Apulia; becauſe the Sicilian Privateers are ſo numerous on our Coaſts, that we can get no Proviſions by Sea. Our Regency have granted the Viceroy a conſiderable Sum, for paying the Imperial Troops in this Kingdom. The Expedition againſt Sicily cannot be undertaken before the Arrival of a Squadron of Britiſh and Dutch Ships.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Decemb. 13.

Venice, Nov. 26. The Electoreſs of Bavaria being lately come hither from a Country Seat where ſhe reſided all the Summer, has encreas'd her Retinue, and appears often at the Opera. The Ambaſſador of France has on the Part of the King his Maſter given her Electoral Highneſs Bills of Exchange for 200000 Ducats, ſhe has alſo receiv'd conſiderable Sums from her Mother the Queen Dowager of Poland. The French Ambaſſador has within 8 or 10 Days had 3 Audiences of our Senate, but 'tis not known on what Subject. It has been reſolv'd, that the Republick ſhall cauſe King Philip of Spain to be congratulated on the Birth of the Prince of Aſturias, which his Majeſty notify'd to them by a Letter under his own Hand. 'Tis talk'd that the Duke of Mantua, who two Days ago made a Viſit to the Electorſs of Bavaria, deſigns if he cannot make an Accommodation with the Court of Vienna by the next Spring, to go then with that Princeſs to France.

From the Bruſſels Gazette.

Vienna, Nov. 30. An Expreſs diſpatch'd from Tirnau by the Cardinal of Saxe Zeits Primate of Hungary, has brought Advice, that his Eminency has already had 3 Conferences with the Deputies of the Counties that were come thither, and that he had Ground to hope for a good Iſſue of the Congreſs. Some Advices tell us, that the Malecontents of the Mountain-Towns diſtruſt each other; and having come to Blows in the Heat of their Diſſentions, ſeveral have been kill'd and wounded: That Prince Ragotski ſuſpecting ſome of his Officers, diſplaces ſome from time to time on frivolous Pretences, and puts others into their Rooms. Letters from Arath, ſay General Rabutin has put his Troops into Winter-quarters in Tranſilvania, where no Malecontents appear in the Field ſome being return'd home and others retir'd into Upper Hungary.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Decem. 16.

Grenoble, Decemb. 5. 7000 Foot and 1800 Horſe began their March out of this Province for Alſace the 29th of laſt Month. To recruit the Troops remaining in Dauphine, Savoy, and the County of Nice, whoſe Number is 61 Battallions and 40 Squadrons, 2 Men are taken out of every Village in this Country. All the Marſhal de Teſſe's Baggage is ſent from hence to Paris; from which 'tis conjectur'd that, both becauſe of his ill State of Health and of his being but ill belov'd by the Troops, that General will ſerve no more in the Field; and Letters from Court tell us there is ſome Likelihood of the Marſhal de Catinat's being ſent to ſupply his Room, becauſe he knows this Part of the Country and Piemont perfectly, and would be very acceptable to the Officers and Soldiers.

Paris, Decemb. 5. The deceas'd Count d' Auvergne has by his laſt Will re-eſtabliſh'd the Prince d' Auvergne, who went into the Service of the Allies, in his Rights of Primogeniture, in Caſe the King will be pleas'd to receive him into Favour. The 21ſt paſt, the Aſſembly of the States of Provence was open'd at Lambeſe in the Preſence of the Count de Grignan; and the next Day they unanimouſly voted the King a Free-Gift of 700000 Livres, as in former Years. The Marſhal de Teſſe continuing indiſpos'd, has deſir'd the King's Permiſſion to quit the Service; which 'tis ſaid is granted him, and 'tis believ'd the Duke of Berwick will command the Army in Dauphine the next Summer, the Marſhal de Catinat being ſuppos'd unable to endure the Fatigues of War. The Duke of Orleans is expected at Court the 20th Inſtant.

From the Bruſſ. Gaz. and Antw. Cour. Dec. 13.

Paris, Decemb. 9. Letters from Madrid of the 26th paſt, tell us the King has eſtabliſh'd a Regiment of 500 Young Caſtilian Lords and Gentlemen, for the Prince of Aſturias's Guard. The 24th of November the States of Languedoc aſſembled at Monpellier, and the 1ſt Inſtant granted the King a Free-Gift of 3 Millions of Livres, and 2 Millions by Way of Capitation; as they did laſt Year. The Marquis de Marcilly who commands at Soſpello on the Frontier of the County of Nice, made an Excurſion with a Detachment of his Garriſon the 24th and 25th paſt on the Frontier of Piemont, and brought off a Booty of ſeveral Mules loaded with Goods of Value, 1400 Sheep, and ſurpris'd and took a Guard of 60 Savoyards near Broglio. The King has given a Commiſſion of reform'd Lieutenant-Collonel of Horſe to the Chevalire Bernard, in Conſideration of his Services, and in particular for conducting in July laſt (by Order of the the Count de Grignan Commandant in Provence) 40 Battallions under M. de Goesbriant, (which were ſent for from Dauphine to Provence) by a ſhort but very difficult Way, to the intrench'd Camp of St. Anne before Toulon.

Paris, Decemb. 12. 'Tis advis'd from Dauphine, that the Duke of Savoy had ſent a Battallion by the Col de Tende to reinforce the Garriſon of Saorgio; for ſecuring that Place againſt our Troops that are in the County of Nice.
